

Discourse Analysis

Session 1: Introducing discourse analysis from a historical perspective, also the syllabus i.e., Discourse Analysis Brian Partridge 2012.

Session 2: Chapter two of the book Discourse and society is discussed.

Session 3: Chapter three of the book discourse and pragmatics is examined, and elaborated.

Session 4: The remaining part of chapter three is completed.

Session5: Students are expected to report articles on the related topics.

Session 6: Chapter four of the book i.e. Discourse and Genre is presented by the student.

Session 7: Chapter five of the book discourse and conversation is presented and student take part actively in discussion.

Session 8: The remaining part of chapter five is completed plus some articles.

Session 9: Midterm Exam.

Session 10: Chapter six Discourse and Grammar is presented by any members of the classroom.

Session 11: Chapter seven, Corpus approaches to discourse analysis is presented, practiced and exemplified.

Session 12: The remaining parts of chapter seven is carried out in the same way.

Session 13: students are likely to report articles from recognized journals, and report them in the classroom.

Session 14: The chapter English of the book multimedia discourse analysis id presented and student actively participant in classroom transaction.

Session 15: The remaining parts of chapter eight is conducted.

Session 16: Critical discourse analysis i.e. chapter nine is studied.