

Paper models for geology mapwork

The purpose of the paper models is to help undergraduate students visualise a range of 3-D geometries associated with faults. They are intended as a complement to structural geology coursework on faults and to related mapwork. The models are easy to build and can be downloaded free.

<https://www.fault-analysis-group.ucd.ie/papermodels/papermodels.htm>