

Draft of Agenda:

The director of Subcontinent Studies Center and the representative of the Department of Language and Persian Literature of the University of Sistan and Baluchestan held a bilateral academic meeting with the Head of Persian Department of Delhi University at the presence of the Director of International affairs of the University of Sistan and Baluchestan.

Time and Date: 8:00 P.M. November the 2nd 2017.

Place: Subcontinent Studies Center, University of Sistan and Baluchestan, Zahedan Iran

Objective: To discuss establishing bilateral scientific and academic ties.

Attendees:

1. Professor Maryam Khalili Jahantigh as the Director of Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center and the representative of the Language and Persian Literature Department of University of Sistan and Baluchestan,
2. Professor Alim Ashraf khan, Head of Persian Department, Delhi University
3. Dr. Mohammad Barani, Research Deputy, Indian Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center.
4. Professor MohammadReza Ghasemi, Director of International Affairs Office of University of Sistan and Baluchestan.

The three sides discussed on different academic cooperation, at the end of which they reached and agreed on suggesting possible occurrence of the followings:

1. To hold joint projects, in the form of research projects and thesis on the following poets: Bidel, Ghaleb, and Amir Hosein Sajzi Dehlavi.
2. To create mobility programs for sending professors of Persian Department from USB to Delhi University Persian Department and to send Urdu language professors from Delhi University to Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center.
3. To publish the Journal belong to Persian Department of Delhi University at the Peninsula and South Asia Studies Center through a joint program.

Chancellery

International Affairs & Inter-university Cooperation

4. To publish the journal of Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center joint with Delhi University Persian Department professors.
5. University of Sistan and Baluchestan Persian Department accepts to enroll three talented students of Persian Department from Delhi University for the first semester of 2018 beginning on September. These students will be exempted from tuition fees, dorm fees, and refectory food charges.
6. They reached agreement that they provide sabbatical programs for the professors of the two departments.

Office of International Affairs of University of Sistan and Baluchestan agreed on keeping track of the official correspondence with Professor Sayed Mohammad Reza Khalili, the scientific council of the Islamic Republic of Iran in New Delhi, India, to follow the official procedures necessary for the possible fulfilment of the very suggestions and as well to arrange for a meeting at the institutional levels of both universities with the objective of expanding the scientific, academic, and research ties between the two universities.

The meeting ended at 11:00 P.M.

Name, Signatures, Date:

1. Professor Maryam Khalili Jahantigh, Director of Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center, University of Sistan and Baluchestan.

M. Kh. Jahantigh

2. Professor Alim Ashraf Khan, Head of Persian Language and Literature, Delhi University

Alim Ashraf Khan

3. Dr. Mohammad Barani, Research Deputy, Subcontinent and South Asia Studies Center, University of Sistan and Baluchestan.

M. Barani

4. Professor MohammadReza Ghasemi, Director of International Affairs Office, University of Sistan and Baluchestan.

MohammadReza Ghasemi 04/11/2017

